Learning experience

○ Pre-course

This part of the learning experience is meant to ensure a smooth transition to the face to face training. Participants are required to take the following steps:

- › Needs assessment - complete a questionnaire to determine a tailored and relevant learning experience;
- › Pre-course evaluation quiz – take a short quiz to establish the current level of knowledge;
- › Guidance and schedule – analyze a document presenting guidelines on how to maximize your learning experience;
- › Forum introduction – share an introduction message to present yourself to the other course participants;
- › Expectations - share your expectations regarding the training course;
- › Pre-requisite reading - go through a series of documents to better understand the core-course content.

⊙ Core course

During the three days of face to face training, the course is designed to facilitate experiential learning and ensure a high level of interactivity. Exercises used to enhance the development of competencies range from simple matching of concepts to extensive analyses of case studies. The learning experience consists of:

- › Discovering the theoretical concepts through interactive exercises;
- › Solving different scenarios that might arise within an organization, in order to perform a comparative analysis and identify the best approach to be adopted;
- › Using templates that you can afterwards customize to suit your organizational needs;
- › Analyzing case studies and identifying solutions for the challenges encountered;
- › Sharing your own experiences and good practices in the field.

⊙ After-course

The learning process is not finalized when the core-course ends. Participants are required to take the following steps:

- › Forum discussions - initiate a discussion and contribute in a discussion opened by another participant;
- › Action plan - create a plan for the actions and initiatives you intend to implement after the training course;
- › In-house presentation - create and submit a short PowerPoint presentation to present your colleagues the knowledge you have accessed during the training course;
- › Additional reading - go through a series of resources to expand your content related knowledge;
- › Learning journal: reflect upon your 3 stages learning experience and complete a journal.

✓ Evaluation

The certification process is finalized only when you complete all of the 3 stages of the learning experience. Nonetheless, you will receive a:

- › Certificate of Completion (soft copy): after completing pre-course activities and passing the Certification Exam;
- › Certificate of Attendance (hard copy): after participating at the 3 days of on-site training course;
- › Certified Employee Performance Management Professional diploma (soft copy): after you have successfully completed all of the 3 stages of the learning experience.
- › CPD Certificate of Attendance (soft copy): once you have successfully obtained the Professional status.
