Course overview

In a highly competitive market, the quality of the organization's customer service will determine customers' satisfaction, loyalty, increase the chances of them becoming advocates of the company and generate future revenue. This training course focuses on the entities, essentials, enablers and evaluation tools involved in a performant customer service. The course's approach to customer service is unique, as it includes the performance management dimension. Participants will not only understand the important role played by all the entities involved in the process, but they will also become familiar with the implementation phases of a customer service performance management architecture.

8 Participants' profile

> Customer service experts

Individuals working with customers on a regular basis, regardless of their field of expertise or the organization's profile will discover, through this course, the tools and resources required for the effective implementation, sustaining and evaluation of a customer service performance culture within their organization.

> Top/middle/lower customer service management

Individuals from top/middle/lower customer service management, regardless of their field of expertise, will be glad to discover in Certified Customer Service Performance Professional, a training course especially designed to develop their customer service performance management skills.

> Professionals interested in customer service

Entrepreneurs, analysts and professionals from different fields, that have to interact with customers in their respective work fields, will acquire the knowledge needed to understand customer behavior and responding standards. The networking opportunity and the possibility of sharing knowledge and personal experiences with other professionals from the customer service area constitutes an important aspect of this training course.
